

nation to gather. On the 27th of June 2008, 46664 will host a concert in Hyde Park. I want very much to be back in London to attend this concert and I hope to see you there.

It remains for me to acknowledge my gratitude to all who have made this day possible. We trust that the statue will be a reminder of heroes and heroines past, as well as an inspiration for continuing struggle against injustice.

I thank you.

